

Troop 365 Canton, OH Presidents Day Weekend 2014

February 14 to 17, 2014

We plan on traveling from Worthington, OH to Camp Buckeye. We will have heated cabins and access to heated showers and restrooms. The cabin also has a lounge area for some chess or euchre tournaments when we are not working on skills. Visit the McKinley Memorial and Museum on Saturday that includes a visit to Hoover Price Planetarium. Return to Camp Buckeye for more skills work, exploration, and yes more chess or euchre. Sunday, the plans are to visit the Pro Football Hall of Fame. This includes a scout patch and scavenger hunt to make things even more exciting. After breakfast and packing, we will visit the Warthers Carving museum before returning home to Worthington, OH.

WHEN: Meet at Worthington United Methodist Church 5:30pm Friday night so we can leave by 6:00pm! Eat dinner before you come or bring something to eat on the bus.

RETURN: Monday, February, at 2:00 pm at the Worthington United Methodist Church.

BRING: For recommended items, please refer to your Scout Handbook on pages 264, 292, and 293 for a list of recommended basic essentials. We will be cabin camping, so no need to bring your tents, just your sleeping pads, bags, and pillows. The sleeping arrangements are bunks. You are able to tent camp outside if cabin camping is not your thing.

COST: $70 turned in by Monday, February 10. This cost covers transportation, food, heated lodging, heated showers, and entry fees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, McKinley Museum, and, Warthers Carving Museum.

Bring extra money for gifts or souvenirs.
